

George E. Levoy, Esq.

Principal

glevoy@bdboston.com

857-270-5090

Practice Areas

- Estate Planning Taxation & Probate
- Real Estate & Land Use Law

George Levoy has earned his reputation as a premier estate planning and real estate attorney in Boston's western suburbs. As he has for decades, George manages and often directly handles his clients' real estate transactions and projects, and helps them structure their families' personal needs and financial affairs with carefully tailored estate plans. George remains an active civic leader in the Natick community.

Work with Clients

Mr. Levoy has more than 30 years of experience working with clients to develop and refine their estate plans. He also oversees the administration of clients' trusts and estates. His extensive experience in real estate transactions includes the representation of lenders, sellers, buyers, landlords, and tenants. Mr. Levoy also represents business clients in entity formation and contract matters.

Professional Activities

- Commonwealth of Massachusetts
- United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts
- United States Court of Appeals, First Circuit

Personal and Community Activities

Mr. Levoy is active in community and charitable activities. He is a long-time member and Past President of the Natick Rotary, a former Board Member of the Natick Community Organic Farm, and a youth soccer coach. George also enjoys playing ice hockey and golf.

Education

Mr. Levoy is a 1983 graduate of Mount Union College, in Alliance, Ohio, where he received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business Finance and Political Science. He earned his Juris Doctorate Degree from Suffolk University Law School in 1986.